

Getting to Know You: Lucy Rogers

Lucy Rogers is almost 8yrs old. She was born in 2009 in Baltimore, MD.

She lives with her family, Mike and Jenny Rogers and brother Ethan, on Mt. Desert Island. They have 3 chickens and 6 chicks. These help keep Lucy in fresh eggs, which is one of her favorite foods. She also likes cheeseburgers (hold the mayo) and tacos. Lucy's chores include collecting the eggs and helping with laundry and cooking.

An accomplished 2nd grader, Lucy claims that math is her favorite subject, but she also loves to read stories, especially the Harry Potter series. Her favorite actors are Daniel Radcliffe (Harry) and Emma Watson (Hermione).

Lucy is one of our young acolytes at St. Mary's. While she likes being an acolyte she also likes Sunday School because she doesn't have to sit still all time.

In the future Lucy would like to play basketball, be an actor, and live on a farm. Knowing Lucy, we think she will accomplish all of that and lots more.
